For Congress.

We are authorized to announce JOSEPH M. KENDALL, of Floyd county, Kentucky, as a candidate for Congress from the Tenth Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

For Sheriff.

We are authorized to announce SAM HENRY WILSON as a candidate for sheriff of Wolfe county, subject only to the will of the people at the polls in November, 1894.

THIS PAPER is all home print, and if you want all the good things it contains you should read every article on each of the eight pages. You will find all the local news that way.

Born, to the wife of Arless Barker, on Sunday evening last, a boy,

B. F. Quicksall, of this place, left yesterday morning to attend court at West Liberty.

Silas Kash, of this place, and Will Jones, of Hedges, left here Monday afternoon for a visit to West Liberty.

Lula and Nellie Evans, who were visiting their grandfather, "Gov." Evans, at Campton, returned home on Thursday.

Fletcher McGuire, who has been at Hot Springs, Ark., for some time taking the baths, got home Tuesday about midnight.

Do not fail to read the advertisement of Caldwell College, Danville. It is one of the best schools in the state for young ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Cord, accompanied by their little son Robert and Mrs. Ireland, mother of Mrs. Cord, left Monday for a visit to Bath and Mason counties.

Lack of vitality and color-matter in the bulbs causes the hair to fall out and turn gray. We recommend Hall's Hair Renewer to prevent baldness and grayness.

J. T. Day and wife, accompanied by their little daughter, Daisy, left Tuesday for Winchester, where they will visit Robert J. McLin and wife, their son-in-law and daughter, for several weeks.

Dr. M. C. Kash, of Farmers, came up on Thursday last to visit his mother and brother, and on Sunday started back, accompanied by his mother, who will make her home with him for awhile.

John Jones, of White Oak, and a young Mr. Colvin, of West Liberty, were here Sunday gallanting some of Hazel Green's beauties, and took in the big Methodist meeting at Rose Chapel, on Lacy creek.

Miss Cora Combs, of Ezel, who is visiting Mrs. F. McGuire of this place, and Mrs. Maggie Cassidy and Mrs. Nannie Kash, of this place and nearby, attended the entertainment at Campton Wednesday evening last.

Mrs. Maggie Oliver, of Mt. Sterling, a sister of Mrs. Dr. Kash, of this place, visited here Sunday, and on Monday left for West Liberty, accompanied by her cousin, Henry Maxey, where both will visit relatives for a few days.

William Caskey, of Grassy creek, in Morgan county, the venerable father of our fellow-townsmen W. T. Caskey, is again quite ill. Mr. Caskey and wife go out every day to see him, and Mrs. Caskey remains throughout the day.

FOR SALE—The Day House, only hotel in town. Has 20 rooms; large sample room; good stable; good water; 2½ acres of ground. Will be sold cheap, and part pay on long time. Address Mrs. LOU DAY, Hazel Green, Ky.

Mrs. J. T. Pieratt and Mrs. H. F. Pieratt, who visited friends and relations at St. Helens last week, accompanied by the latter's three children, came home Thursday under escort of S. S. Combs, of Campton, father of Mrs. H. F. Pieratt.

The West Liberty brass band will furnish the music for the delegates to the Campton convention to vote by. They will doubtless play the Kendall march—"Behold, the conquering hero comes," as one of the appropriate airs for the occasion.

It was rumored here Monday that Jim Ward (Sut) whom our Hazel Green readers will remember as the little son of Green Ward, who lived here some eight years ago and was afterwards killed in Texas, had last week shot and wounded some man in Breathitt county. We have no particulars.

Do not fail to read the advertisement of the Kentucky Training School, which appears in our paper today. Major Fowler has built up this school until it stands second to none in the south, and parents who have boys to train should consult him before making arrangements for their education.

William Marcum shot and instantly killed his neighbor, J. J. Walton, at St. Helens, on Sunday night. Marcum and his wife had separated and Mrs. Marcum sought the protection of Mr. Walton and family. On Sunday night Mr. Walton with his family, accompanied by Mrs. Marcum, started to church. Marcum came up and began to abuse his wife, when Mr. Walton interfered and Marcum shot him dead.

An Unwelcome Bed-Fellow.

Lecher Davis and wife, who live near the Breathitt line in this county, had a very exciting and hair raising experience with a copperhead snake on the night of June 28. They had retired for the night when Mrs. Davis was disturbed by something cold crawling across one of her legs. Instinctively suspecting that it was a snake, she gave her limb a quick flit and jumped from the bed, when she at once saw by the light of the moon's rays that it was indeed a snake, and so told her husband. He raised to a sitting posture and hit the snake, which had coiled to strike, with his open hand and all the power he could command. The blow stunned the snake and knocked it onto the floor, where Mrs. Davis, with shoe in hand hit it a stunning blow on the head as it struck the floor and killed it. They then procured a light and proceeded to investigate, when they found it to be an immense copperhead, and on the bed discovered a mouse, which showed that it had been swallowed to the shoulders by the snake. This doubtless saved both Mr. and Mrs. Davis from being bitten by the reptile, which is known to be the most vicious as well as the most venomous of the snake family, as having the mouse in its mouth it could not strike. It was a providential escape from a poisonous bite and maybe death, for which these people are quite thankful. In the future they will look the bed carefully before retiring to see that it contains no unbidden bed fellow of the copperhead species, and through this vigilance they may be able to kill the dead snake's mate, as they generally use together.

Grant Lacy, who has been away from here for about two years, returned Sunday night. During his absence he was in Texas awhile, but latterly has been living in Iowa, near Bedford, the same neighborhood in which Miles Little located. And, by the way, Grant says Miles is doing well, with a 100 acre farm, good stock, etc. Miles Murphy, who sold out and went to Texas, is now a resident of the neighborhood, also, he having moved to Iowa last fall. He has a farm of 60 acres, stock, etc. Jack Spicer and Dan Isom, our colored friends, live in Bedford, and are both doing well. Mr. Lacy will probably remain here for two or three months, but thinks now that he will go back in the fall to Iowa with which state he is very much pleased.

The Johnson county delegation to the Republican convention were guests of the Day House Friday night en route to Stanton, and coming back the Magoffin delegation stopped over Tuesday night at the same hostelry. Mr. Kirk, of Paintsville, who was a prospective candidate for congress himself, was at the head of the former crowd, and jolly Jeff Prater, of Salyersville, chaperoned the Magoffin contingent. Not a man of them, so far as noticed, gave evidence of exhilaration or exuberance from looking upon the wine that is red, and we wondered why all delegations can not emulate their example. If memory serves us right they don't always behave so well, and more's the pity.

W. H. Nelson, who is in the drug business at Kingville, Mo., has so much confidence in Chamberlains Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he warrants every bottle and offers to refund the money to any customer who is not satisfied after using it. Mr. Nelson takes no risk in doing this because the remedy is a certain cure for the diseases for which it is intended and he knows it. For sale by John M. Rose.

John Wilson, our town marshal, last Friday killed a black rattlesnake on the head of Gillmore creek that had seven rattles and a button and measured 3½ feet in length. Mr. Wilson had just stepped onto a little log when he heard the peculiar rattle this snake makes as a warning, and, turning to see whence the sound, he discovered the snake in the act of striking. He jumped onto it with both feet and soon killed it.

Henry Maxey, of Montgomery county, was visiting relatives here Sunday. He is a cousin of Mrs. Dr. J. M. Kash, and a brother of old Elder Kern Maxey, who used to preach in this country. Though living within fifty miles, Mr. Maxey has not been in Hazel Green before for thirty years, and he was amazed to see the many improvements.

WOLFE COUNTY.

Campton Currency.

A. F. Byrd and John W. Congleton went to Irvine last week, returning Sunday.

W. S. Albright, agent for the New York Life Insurance company, was in town yesterday and some of our citizens were taking policies.

Our public school will begin immediately after the August examination. The teachers who are to take charge will be on hand at the examination to obtain certificates.

The indications are that Joe M. Kendall will be nominated for congress without a very hot contest. He will in all probability come into the convention with 36 instructed votes.

Quite a number of our Republican friends are attending the congressional convention at Stanton, which met Monday, prominent among whom are Capt. Wm. L. Hurst, Z. T. Hurst, Wm. E. White, R. E. Cundiff, etc.

The Irvine Lumber company, of Irvine, Estill county, made an assignment for the benefit of creditors on the 21st ult., to John B. Stuart, of Toledo, Ohio, who was the president of the corporation. Stuart, however, failed to qualify, and W. W. Gould, of Irvine, executed a bond and undertook to carry out the trust. They have only been in business about two years. From the schedule which they file their assets are $76,000 in round numbers and their liabilities $47,000. They owe the firm of Elkin & Congleton, of Lane, about $2,700, and J. N. Vaughn, of this place, about $900, and several other small sums in this community. It is thought by some that they will only pay a small per cent. This, however, depends largely upon the manner in which the trust is executed.

The select school here closed on last Wednesday after a five months' session of very successful school work. The two ladies who have had charge of the school have given eminent satisfaction as to their school work, both of whom are excellent ladies. They left for their home on Thursday afternoon. Miss Heydenburk goes to Michigan and Miss Vanburen to New York. They will not teach the public school here this fall as had been hoped by all of our people, but the American Missionary Association, under whose control our school will be for the ensuing year, will furnish other teachers. These go to other more lucrative fields of labor. All our people who had become very much attached to them by the five months association regretted very much to give them up. They leave behind them at Campton, a host of friends and take with them from here the best wishes of all our people for their future happiness and success in life.

The entertainments given by the school here on last Wednesday morning and evening was quite a success. The morning exercises consisted of orations, declamations, recitations and songs. The evening exercises consisted of dialogues, orations, declamations, songs etc. All the various participants performed their respective parts in a very praiseworthy manner, and showed a great deal of talent in that line, and also that they had been properly trained. Some parts of the exercises surpassed anything we ever remember to have seen in an entertainment of a similar character. There was quite a large audience on Wednesday evening, the court room having been packed to its utmost capacity. All present showed their appreciation of the exercises by the good attention which they gave, with the exception of a few drunken toughs who usually haunt such places to create a disturbance. These, however, were promptly waited upon by the officers. AVIS.

On June 28, in a row between Dillard and Harvey Tyra, the latter tried to take a shotgun from Henry Landsaw, and in the tussle the gun fired and twenty-seven shot struck Lesley Tyra on the leg and inflicted a very bad wound. Two shot struck the mother of the Tyra boys, one in each leg. SHANGHAI.

Some school teacher with a first-class certificate probably would do well to apply for our school, as we have no teacher under contract.

We learned that Samuel Bollen last week struck Wm. Tolson Jr., across the side of the head with a gun and came very near killing him out.

Paris and Price Rose, while looking for cattle out in the range last Saturday, said they heard five rattlesnakes singing. The boys became excited, left the woods and came home, and the snakes are at large yet.
